

The National Forest Wood Fair 2010

Bank Holiday Monday 30th August, 10am-5pm

The National Forest Wood Fair 2010

Bank Holiday Monday 30th August
Beacon Hill Country Park,
Woodhouse Eaves, Leicestershire LE12 8SP

- Don't miss the live demonstrations of woodworking skills, craft displays and chainsaw sculpting.
- There's plenty for children - stories from the Wild Man of the Woods, birds of prey, craft activities, archery and the brilliant climbing wall.
- Find out more about woodlands - from tree planting to felling. Talk to the experts and watch forestry in action including timber processing and horse logging.
- Take a break in the Food Area where you'll find a great selection of delicious locally produced food.
- And that's not all! There will also be an exciting lumberjack show, longbow displays, charity auction and a fascinating programme of talks on trees and woodland.

Admission (including car parking and programme)
Adult £7, Concession £4,
Family £15 (2 adults & 3 children)

How to find Beacon Hill

The Country Park lies 3 miles south of Loughborough and is a 5 minute drive from Junctions 22 and 23 of the M1 motorway. From J22 follow the A511 and B591. From J23 follow the A512 towards Ashby and then the B591.

Entrance via the Upper Beacon Car Park.

Supported by emda and the Forestry Commission through the 'Making Woods Work Programme'.